

The Church of Scotland

Tarbert Church of Scotland 30th December 2018

Rev Ian M MacDonald

Good morning and welcome to our morning service. A warm welcome also to any visitors who are sharing in worship with us. Do please join us in the MacRae Centre after this service for tea/coffee and fellowship, and please sign our Visitors Book there if you are visiting us today. The minister's new year letter should be included as a separate sheet with the intimations. If it is missing, then there should be copies at the front door.

Intimations

- The Sunday school and Crèche rest during the Christmas Holidays and will resume on Sunday 13th January.
- The evening service at 6pm tonight will be in Gaelic.
- Iolaire Service of Remembrance. There will be a service of remembrance on the morning of 1st January 2019 at 1.45 am at the Harris War Memorial. This service is timed to coincide with the exact moment 100 years ago when HMY Iolaire foundered on the beafts of Holm near Stornoway harbour. A warm welcome is extended to all to this poignant service of remembrance, where wreathes will be laid and local pipers will play, and the church bell will toll in tribute.
- New Year's day service 1st January 2019 . We meet on New Year's Day as usual at 12 Noon on the first day of the year. The Kirk Session agreed that this service would also be a bilingual service to remember the tragic loss of the Iolaire 100 years ago.
- The prayer meeting on Wednesday 2nd January will be at 7.30pm.
- Services next Sunday 6th January: Morning Service 11am & Evening Service 6pm (Both English.)
- At our Christmas Praise Night last weekend our new PA system was used to a record the singing of Jehovah Tsidkenu, this recording can be found on the Sermons page of our website.

- Soul We hope to begin as a follow up to Youth Alpha a short course entitled SOUL for teens and young adults in January. SOUL is a course based on a journey through Mark's Gospel in seven interactive sessions. During these weeks, we will be looking together at what Christianity is, finding our identity in Jesus, the meaning of the Cross, Resurrection, Grace among many other topics. We hope to meet on Saturday evenings in January and February, and more details will be given in the coming weeks.
