15th September 2019 – Communion Sunday

Rev Paul Amed

Good morning and welcome and a warm welcome also to any visitors and friends from other congregations who are joining us for our communion service which will be conducted by Rev Paul Amed retired minister of Barvas. Later in the service we will celebrate the sacrament of the Lord's supper and those who love the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity and might be members of any branch of the church of Christ are invited to join us in this sacrament.

Intimations

- There is a crèche in the Macrae meeting room during this morning's service.
- The Thanksgiving Service at 6pm this evening will also be conducted by Rev Paul Amed
- The Retiring Collection at both our services today will be in aid of Bethesda Hospice .
- The Prayer Meeting will take place on Wednesday 18th September at 7.30pm in the MacRae Centre.
- Many thanks to all those whose contributions in different ways have been such a blessing during the communion season. So many have helped in so many ways that it would be unfair to single people out, but please know that the hard work and selfless contributions of all are greatly appreciated. We give our grateful and heartfelt thanks to our preachers over these Communion services, Rev/s Hugh M Stewart, John M Nicolson, James Macdonald and Paul Amed.
- Services next Sunday 22nd September- 11am and 6pm (Gaelic)
